BUILDING ASSESSMENT FOR GOOD

2026 E-ATP CONFERENCE
SPONSORSHIP PROSPECTUS

Dear Colleague,

On behalf of the Association of Test Publishers (ATP) and its European Division, E-ATP, we are delighted to invite you to sponsor the eighteenth annual E-ATP Conference - The European Home of Assessment - Building Assessment for Good. The Conference will be held 7-9 October 2026 at the beautiful Cardo Roma Hotel in Rome, Italy.

The Association of Test Publishers is a global, non-profit organisation representing providers of assessment tools, services, and solutions. The European Association of Test Publishers (E-ATP) serves as ATP's European division, bringing together assessment professionals and organisations across Europe to collaborate, exchange innovative ideas, and develop educational and marketing opportunities focused on assessment.

The E-ATP Conference is recognised for delivering cutting-edge insights and high-quality content. Each year, it offers a unique opportunity for assessment professionals, educators, employers, researchers, test sponsors, and business leaders to come together in one European location to learn, collaborate, present new ideas, and build meaningful connections.

E-ATP is truly The European Home of Assessment, fostering collaboration and shared learning across the industry. This year's conference is focused on the vital role that assessment plays in opening doors, supporting lifelong learning, and driving opportunities for all. We aim to shape a future where assessment empowers individuals, strengthens communities, and contributes to the greater good. This is your chance to be part of the largest, most dynamic assessment event in Europe, dedicated to transforming the world of assessment.

Sponsors of the 2026 E-ATP Conference can tailor packages to fit their specific goals within their budget parameters. Sponsorship packages include a point system for sponsors to build their custom package and exclusive opportunities for those wanting to reach specific goals. Sponsors who are members of E-ATP also have the chance to "sponsor" non-member delegates at the member registration rate!

Please join us in our mission by supporting and participating in this important event in the assessment industry while building lasting connections.

Warmest Regards,

Sponsorship Rules

ATP Intellectual Property:

ATP's name and logo is not permitted on any sponsorship materials or emails. This includes all advertising in the printed programme and mobile app. The reason is that when the ATP logo is used, it can be misconstrued as an ATP endorsement of a particular product, service or organization, or it can be misconstrued as a certification of a product, service or organization. ATP is not a certifying body. This prohibition should not be confused with approved Conference Branding, which will be made available by the E-ATP Conference Planning Committee and approved in taglines in social networking or other electronic or print communications directly promoting the conference.

Emails and Attendee Contact Lists:

Sponsors of the E-ATP conference have the option to receive the special benefit of a one-time use of pre- and/or post-conference mailing lists. ATP must provide attendees with the option to not be included in the lists provided to sponsors. Sponsors will receive a list of all attendees as described for all who do not opt out of this process. These mailing lists are a privilege and must not be sold, rented, or given out for any reason to any outside organisations by the sponsor. ATP requires that these lists be used in reference to the conference and not for any other purpose.

Additionally, in order to conform to Personal Data Protection requirements within the EU, all e-mails or mailings must be sent without identification of any other addresses and must have an option for "unsubscribe." Please do not use these lists for the promotion of jobs or other recruiting efforts. ATP has a specific Career Center for this service. Thank you.

Sponsor Stands:

All exhibit materials must fit within your tabletop 3-meter width space. Exhibit stands must be staffed continuously during the scheduled exhibit hours. All transportation and security of exhibit materials to and from the conference is the responsibility of the exhibitor. ATP is not liable for any lost or damaged exhibit materials.

Giveaways:

All sponsor giveaways that are not indicated on your sponsorship contract must remain within your exhibit space inside the exhibit area. Items may not be distributed throughout the meeting space. This includes flyers or any other information promoting a sponsor event or activity.

The ATP Privacy Policy is described here in a concise, transparent, intelligible, and easily-accessible form. It is set forth in a series of specific components describing how the ATP Privacy Policy operates and how it meets certain privacy rights.

Identity of the Data Controller: The ATP is the data controller – the entity that collects and processes personal data, or arranges for such actions taken on its behalf by its agents. The ATP is responsible for deciding the purposes for which personal information is used and processed, and the means by which such processing is done. That payment card information is NOT collected, stored, or retained by the ATP after you make such payment.

What are the legitimate interests we have for collecting/using your personal information? The principal basis on which we collect and use your information is when you give us your affirmative consent. However, when you register for a Conference or other ATP event, or make a purchase through our bookstore, the ATP has a legitimate basis beyond consent to collect your personal information in order to provide you with the goods or services that you expect us to deliver, which depends upon us having and using your personal information. Once you have a formal relationship with us, the ATP also obtains a legitimate interest in providing you with timely information about upcoming events and/or products in which you may have an interest; so, to better serve you, we will market or promote those events/products to you. Additionally, the ATP permits you to access various social media networks through our websites (e.g., Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn). You need to be aware that if you decide to access such social media through the ATP websites, your information will be available to those services.

Disclosure of your personal information to third parties. The ATP discloses your personal information to the extent necessary to fulfill our obligations to you if you register to attend the E-ATP Conference, the Innovations Conference, or other ATP-sponsored event (i.e., to link you to the secure payment third party website the ATP uses to handle payment for your registration). A related use of the personal information of conference attendees is to share that information with third-party sponsors, who are usually industry vendors that may contact you. The ATP has found that in general this type of disclosure is appreciated by conference attendees; however, we have adopted a policy that entitles you to consent to that disclosure in advance and/or to direct us not to include you in that sharing, as well as enabling you to withdraw that consent.

Do we sell personal information to third parties? No, the ATP will never sell your personal data to any third party that is unrelated to the organization (i.e., who is not a sponsor of the E-ATP Conference, the Innovations Conference, or similar ATP-hosted event).

How long will we retain your personal information? The ATP does not retain personal information longer than is necessary, taking into account any legal obligations we have (e.g., to maintain records for tax purposes), as well as any other legal basis we have for using your personal information (e.g. your consent, performance of services to you and/or your employer as an ATP member, or our legitimate interests as an international trade association). Your information that we use for marketing purposes will be kept until you notify us that you no longer wish to receive this information

How do we secure your personal information? The ATP uses contractors and/or subcontractors who employ commercially available and generally accepted technical and organizational measures to protect personal data against loss, misuse, or alteration during its transmission, storage, and processing. ATP's eventual processor of personal data abides by all Standard Contractual Clauses as prescribed under the former EU-US Privacy Shield. Moreover, only authorized ATP contractors are granted access to your personal information, and only where it is necessary to the conduct of their business operations on behalf of the ATP. In reality, we note that no method of securing personal information transmitted over the Internet, or method of electronic storage is 100% secure. Therefore, the ATP cannot guarantee the absolute security of any personal information. If you have any questions about security on our websites, you can contact us.

Use of cookies: We use cookies, and similar information-gathering technologies (e.g., web beacons), on our websites for the purpose of remembering users' settings (e.g. language preference), for individual authentication, for analyzing visitors to the website, and to improve future web services to you if you return to our websites. If you continue to use this website, we will require that you consent to the use of cookies (see below); you are free to delete our cookies. You should be aware that you can control the use of cookies at the individual browser level; if you reject cookies, you may still use our site, but your ability to use some features or areas of our websites may be limited.

Do we transfer your personal information outside of the European Economic Area? Yes, the ATP generally transfers your personal information to the United States in order to process it (e.g., handle and follow up on your Conference registration), as well as to store the information for future use (e.g., to market the next Conference). When the ATP transfers personal data, we take all reasonable steps to ensure that the information is protected, including protection by contractors and/or subcontractors, and to ensure that your information is not shared in any manner that is inconsistent with this Privacy Policy. Other primary entities that receive your personal information are the event management company with which the ATP contracts to manage the Innovations Conference, the E-ATP Conference, and other ATP- sponsored events, which in turn uses an event application entity certified under the EU-US Privacy Shield, for receiving, storing, and processing personal data of registrants, attendees, speakers, and others.

What are your rights? Your rights in relation to your personal information are to: (1) be informed about its use; (2) have access to your information; (3) correct your personal information; (4) have your personal information deleted; and (5) restrict how we use your personal information. You also have the right to have your personal information ported to others; however, because the ATP's use of your personal information is limited to individual registration (e.g., for Conferences and other events, as speakers at ATP events, and/or as an event sponsor) and marketing activities related to the E-ATP Conference, it is not technically feasible for the ATP to honor such a request because we are not able to exchange that information with another entity with which we have no direct interface or any reason to exchange data. You are also entitled to know if the ATP is using any automated decision-making (including profiling); the ATP does not use any such automated technologies in the processing of your personal information.

How to exercise your rights regarding the collection and use of your personal information: You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time during use of this website or by emailing the ATP at erin.williams@testpublishers.org. However, any data processing performed by the ATP prior to your withdrawal of consent cannot be undone.

You also have the right to object to the ATP's collection and/or use of your personal information, or to request access to your information as well as to request that we correct any information we have or to remove you from our records. If your personal information changes (e.g., zip code, phone, email or postal address), you can change online, physical contact, and other information by contacting ATP as shown above. If you wish to correct/update/delete information or no longer desire to receive information from ATP, you can notify us by using any of the information in the Contact section of this policy. We will respond to your request to access within 30 days. You may file a complaint with the ATP by emailing us at erin.williams@testpublishers.org and the ATP will respond without undue delay, within at least 30 days unless we inform you that additional time will be required. In addition, you have the right to file a complaint with your relevant Supervisory Authority (i.e., Data Protection Authority).

Audio/Video Recording of Events

You release ATP owners, staff and all persons involved from any liability connected with the taking, recording, digitizing, or publication of interviews, photographs, computer images, video and/or sound recordings.

By entering the event/conference (conference venue or virtual meeting platform), you waive all rights you may have to any claims for payment in connection with any streaming, webcasting, audiocasting, or other publication of these materials, regardless of the purpose.
